TWO CENTS

REPORTS INDICATE THAT COAL SITUATION IS BECOMING EASIER

Prices Show Disposition to Reach Normal Condition In Short Time

OPERATORS ARE TAKING ACTION

Reports from the Central bituminous coal fields on Monday showed that the coal situation is easing up rapidly, both as to supply and prices. Lake allotments of coal have been cancelled in the Butler-Mercer district, the middle district of Ohio, the Irwin gas district and smaller sections, which confirms statements made last week to the effect that there is absolutely no danger of a coal shortage in the district during the coming winter.

Reports from Uniontown indicate that process for both coal and coke are softening, coke being quoted the latter part of last week as low as $12 per ton, while bituminous coal showed a decline in keeping with the reduction on coke.

To help along the situation it is expected that a number of additional allotments for lake coal cancelled within a few days, as the lake season is about at an end, which will allow local dealers to place their coal as they receive orders, and will also allow them to take care of the local domestic needs in their respective districts.

A meeting of coal men is being held today at the Hollenden House in Cleveland, Ohio, to discuss the coal situation generally, and conclude what is best for the operators to do as regards the stabilization of the coal industry of the country as a whole.

Following the meeting it is believed that operators of the various districts will fall in line with the program that may be adopted at the gathering. For this reason the Fair Practice Committee of the Coal Operators of Western Pennsylvania postponed on Monday any action relative to adopting a plan for the stabilization of the coal industry of the district until tomorrow, when the committee will hold a meeting to look over the situation.

The fact that prices are showing a disposition to reach lower levels would indicate that conditions in the coal business are rapidly reaching normal conditions, and while the commodity will likely be higher than before the war, owing to increased costs of production, yet will be much lower than prices that have prevailed for the past many months.

MR. OWENS' NIECE IS MAROONED IN TURKEY

According to a letter from Miss Margaret Owens, a Pittsburgh Y. M. C. A. worker, read at a meeting of the Overseas "Y" Women at the home of Mrs. William Watson Smith, Wilkins avenue, on Saturday, she is marooned in Adana, near Constantinople, Asia Minor and for the last month, she writes, the town has been under daily bombardment. Miss Owens is a niece of Thomas Owens of Charleroi.

BROWNSVILLE MERCHANTS PROPOSE ORGANIZATION

In an effort to promote the progress of the three Brownsvilles, and to fill a long felt want among the business men there, patterned after boards of trade and chambers of commerce existing in other towns, will be organized in the very near future. Preliminary steps have already been taken and a meeting of those interested in the movement was held Monday evening to further the project.

IMPORTANT RULING IS MADE BY COURT

An important adjudication has just been handed down by the Washington county court, written by Judge James I. Brownson, in the suit of W. K. Miller, doing business as Miller & Co., against John B. Keys, Albert Bertenzetti and Frank Bertenzetti, partners, doing business as the Fredericktown Mercantile Co-Operative Association.

The point involved was the question of the liability of individual members of the firm, though the goods were sold to the "Fredericktown Mercantile Co-Operative Association, Walter S. Keys, manager and treasurer." A vital matter in the case was the fact that the charter of the co-operative association had never been recorded.

The court holds that neither the fact that the corporation did business under the name of the "Fredericktown Mercantile Co-operative Association," nor the fact that it had a manager and treasurer, amounted to in law to a notice to the plaintiff of the existence of the unrecorded charter of incorporation.

The court further holds that the fact that this charter was unrecorded, the law requiring its recording made the members of the association personally liable to the plaintiff for the price of the goods in question. The fact that the charter was not recorded put the company in the position of engaging in business without having first perfected and completed its incorporation.

The court found that John B. Keys having been found a member of the firm, becomes personally responsible and liable for the bill for which suit was brought. A non-suit was allowed in the case of the other two defendants.

Wild Automobile Ride Results In A Disaster

A wild auto ride down the Webster-Monessen road shortly after the Friday night midnight hour resulted disastrously not only for the occupants of the racing machines, but also for the residents of two houses in a little mining town who were rudely awakened from their slumbers when one of the machines dashed into the houses, knocking one from its foundation, while the other had practically the entire side knocked off, a huge hole being made in two rooms.

According to the story told, the driver of a Buick car bearing license No. 10-254 and the owner of a Nash car bearing license No. 283-023, were attending a banquet of the American Legion in Donora Friday night, and an argument arose as to the speed of the two cars. The drivers agreed to settle the argument with a race on the improved road between Webster and Monessen.

Edgar Jenkins was driving the Buick and in an attempt to pass the Nash, driven by an engineer on the Donora Southern railroad, he side-swiped the car in front and the impact sent him from the road into a house just at the entrance to Webster. He evidently lost control of the car, which again went on the road, side-swiping the Nash again, and then went off the road into another house, terrifying the occupants. The Buick was completely demolished, while the Nash had a broken running board. One of the occupants of the Buick was thrown from the car when it struck the second house, and it required four stitches to close a wound in his head. The driver of the Buick and another passenger miraculously escaped serious injury.

Passing autoists brought the occupants of the Buick to Monessen, and the entire village of Webster was awakened by the screams of the terrified occupants of the two houses, who rushed out of the buildings following the collision.

SHOOTING AFFRAY AT PLATE WORKS

"Gus" Smith is in the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, with a gun shot wound in the head, from which he is not likely to recover, while John Gray is in the local lockup, charged with doing the shooting. Both men are colored and were employed at the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company plant. In an altercation between the two men at noon today, Gray is alleged to have pulled a revolver and shot Smith after the latter it is said, had threatened to assault him with the piece of a clay pot. Gray declares that he did not shoot to hit Smith, but only wanted to scare him. However that may be, the bullet struck Smith in the head, and inflicted a possibly fatal wound.

Immediately after the shooting Gray made his escape, but was captured by Chief Albright, Burgess Woodward and Officer Murphy in Fallowfield township, near the Shan-non school house, after a long chase. He will be held pending the outcome of Smith's condition, which at this time is very serious.

MINERS HELD FOR VIOLATING MINING CODE

Four miners employed at Vesta mine No. 5 were given a hearing before Justice R. J. Whitehead on Saturday evening last, on charges of violating the mining laws, the information being made by C. P. Byrne Inspector of the 21st district. Three of them, John Komola, George R. Miller and Paul Helochek, were held for court under $300 bail, which they furnished. Mike Watts was allowed to go after a nominal fine had been imposed.

TWO AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED FOR

In addition to voting for president, judge of the supreme and superior court, U. S. Senator, State Treasurer, Auditor General, Assemblymen, State Senator and Congressmen, on November second, two proposed amendments to the state constitution will be voted upon. The first amendment will give the general assembly the power by general law to provide for the incorporation of banks and trust companies and to prescribe the powers thereof, and the second amendment will enable the city of Philadelphia to incur an indebtedness of not more than 10 per cent upon the assessed value of its taxable property. Other cities, counties, boroughs, townships, school districts, etc., shall not exceed seven per cent of the assessed valuation of property.

Five marks will be necessary for a voter voting the straight ticket, that in the first column, one each for the non-partisan judicial tickets and one each for the proposed amendments.

SUIT IS BROUGHT FOR HEAVY DAMAGES

Mamie Bell, of Stockdale, has filed suit for $5,000 damages against John Hushner and Theodore Jones, for alleged defamation of characters. It is averred that on the night of May 30, 1920, the defendants attempted to force their way into the house of the plaintiff, at the same time making indecent remarks as to her character and her home. It is averred that at the time the daughter of the plaintiff was ill, and that by reason of the defendants' action she suffered a relapse.

TO DETERMINE LEGALITY OF SALES MADE FOR TAX LIENS

MANY IMMIGRANTS ARE DUE IN FAYETTE COUNTY

Fayette county plant heads will have an opportunity to compare charts during the coming weeks, for according to word from Washington, D. C., Sunday night, the largest number of alien immigrants scheduled for that district in six months time are due to reach the county November 1. Advance notices have been issued through the Department of Immigration, copies of which are forwarded to the different manufacturing and industrial districts.

CUBS WIN GAME FROM THE CHAMPS

While Capt. Billy Kuhn's "Champs" rolled more pins in the aggregate than Capt. Lowstutter's "Cubs," yet the latter managed to take two of the three games of the evening, and thus register another victory for their team. The "Cubs" won the first game by 18 pins and the second by 65, but the "Champs" came back strong in the third and took that frame handily. Capt. Kuhn of the Champs had high score, making 198 in the last game. Capt. Lowstutter also continued his fine game, and demonstrated his value as a leader. Ed. Masters rolled two nice games for the Cubs, but lost his bearings in the last game. Tonight Capt. Osborne's "Lunks" locks horns with Capt. Brown's "Misfits." Score:

MASQUERADE DANCE OF PROTECTED HOME CIRCLE

The annual Masquerade dance, given by the members of the Charleroi Circle, No. 303, Protected Home Circle was held last evening in Might's Auditorium. Although it was feared the change in the weather would prevent many from attending, the hall was filled. Many beautiful costumes were shown while others were extremely funny. Favors for fancy costumes were awarded Miss Elsie Smith, Mrs. Josephine Kline and Joseph Pirt.

Two Suits Have Been Entered by T. J. Underwood To Determine Status

MANY PROPERTIES INVOLVED

Proceedings filed on Monday by Thomas J. Underwood will bring before the Washington county court the validity of the sales of real estate by the county treasurer for taxes, concerning which there has been considerable discussion. It has been averred that the letter of the law was not fully complied with in the matter of the notice of these proposed sales, and that therefore they were invalid.

Mr. Underwood in two petitions filed on Monday sets forth facts as to the purchase of two lots, one in Donora and one in Monongahela. On these petitions he has secured a rule on Ludwig Bresofsky, owner of the lot in Donora and George Guydas, et al., owner of the lot in Monongahela, to show cause why the titles of Mr. Underwood "should not be adjudicated and decreed valid and indefeasible as against all rights and claims whatsoever," he rule is returnable the first Monday in February next.

On the outcome of these suits will depend the title of a large number of properties in Washington county which were sold because of alleged neglect to pay county and state taxes thereon. Quite a number of properties in Bentleyville were involved in one of these deals, and property owners there were very much wrought up over a situation which developed last summer. A number of mass meetings were held, at which an organization was effected and preliminary steps taken to test the sales in court. However, of late, nothing has been heard of any further action on the part of the Bentleyville people and it is not known what has been done.

However, the two suits filed by Mr. Underwood will go far toward clearing up a situation in the county with respect to the sale of property for neglect and failure to pay state and county taxes thereon. The decision will be awaited with much interest.

ARM BROKEN IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Harold Mastson, aged 23, of Belle Vernon, had his right arm broken in two places and suffered severe and painful bruises of the right shoulder Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock when a motor car which he was driving turned turtle on the road a short distance from Belle Vernon. Two other young men, one colored, were occupants of the car. Both escaped injuries. The car was damaged to a considerable extent.

Under date of October 8th, a London news dispatch says:

"According to the American Chamber of Commerce in London the British Board of Trade is being pressed by the Midland Hosiery interests to stop unmarked German hosiery imports, which have so flooded the British market that unemployment and short time are now prevalent in the British industry.

"Among the demands which have been made upon the Board of Trade are the absolute barring out of German hosiery unless marked with the country of origin, the imposition of an ad valorem duty and the restriction of such imports to the quantity absolutely necessary. The British fabric glove industry is in similar trouble."

A Boston dispatch to the New York Herald, also under date of October 8th, reads:

"Large hosiery manufacturers are similarly fixed, and yesterday the Lawrence Manufacturing company of Lowell, employing 3,500 hosiery workers, announced that it was compelled to close its plants.

"Today the employees, through representatives, notified the mills' agent that they would be willing to accept a reduction in wages of 15 per cent, if such reduction would result in reasonably steady employment. The agent said * * * it was doubtful if the offer of the employees would have any effect, as it was merely a matter of failure to get business.

"The underwear machines of the mills were halted today and the hosiery machinery will stop within a few days, the agent said. The Bay State Cotton Corporation of Lowell, employing 1,000 hands, closed to night until November.

The Philadelphia-North American of a few days ago carried a local news article in which it was shown that the imports from Germany received in the port of Philadelphia alone have been coming in at the rate of over $300,000 worth a month. In July of this year the value of German goods landed on the Philadelphia docks was over $500,000, which was $150,000 worth more than was dumped at that port in the five months between August 1, 1919, and January 1, 1920.

A large proportion of these German wares was in the form of hosiery. Our raw cotton is going to Germany in large quantities, is there made up into the finished product, and comes back here, where it is sold on our market at prices with which our American manufacturers, paying the high wages necessary to the maintenance of American standards of living, cannot compete. Logical consequence, closed American factories and thousands of American workmen thrown out of employment, just as thousands of workers are being thrown out in England by the same inundation of cheap-labor, German goods.

Senator Wadsworth at Elmira, on October 7th, in a speech said: "You all remember the industrial depression which slowly, but surely, spread over the country in 1914. Factories were closing, men were thrown out of work and bread lines were appearing in our great cities. That was the result of the Underwood tariff-for-revenue-only law. The great war set up a tremendous demand for food and supplies of every description and the enormous purchases of the belligerents saved the industries of America from collapse. All through the war this artificial condition continued. It has lasted since the close of hostilities. The Underwood tariff law is still on the statute books. If it remains and Europe and Asia again dump their goods on the American market we shall go through the same experience we were having in 1914."

This is not a case of the future, but of the living present. For we are beginning to go through those deplorable 1914 experiences. Even now our factories are closing and our American workmen are being thrown out of employment. The bread lines and the soup kitchens are not yet here, but it is only a question of time—and, at the accelerating pace the dumping process is now taking on, a very short time—when they will be with us again.

And did President Wilson learn anything from these bitter experiences which his personally conducted tariff policy thrust upon the country? He did not. Right at the front of his Fourteen Commandments he reiterated and reaffirmed the same Free Trade dogma which is one of the bedrock articles of his political and economic faith. What are closed American factories, wrecked American industries, beggared American workmen and workingwomen compared with an "ideal" with a "vision on the horizon," with international "voices in the air."

Wilsonism is free trade. Coxeyism is Wilsonism. The twins are one. They are "in full accord." Coxey says so; the Feather Duster says so and the Exalted All-Wisdom itself says so. With Coxey in the White House and a Coxey Congress in the Capital we should go right back to where Wilson had landed us in 1914 when a world upheaval came just in time to save him and his party from being wiped off the political map of the United States—Harveys Weekly.

BIG COLLECTION OF STILLS AND LIQUORS

Most interesting is the collection of stills that is being added to daily in the district attorney's office at Washington. One corner of the private office is now piled to the ceiling with copper boilers and other receptacles. The collection also includes many copper coils. The copper that makes up this collection is valuable and when these exhibits are of no more value, after the cases in which they figure are disposed of, they will be rendered useless and sold for junk.

None of the boilers or stills are of amateur construction. Several of them are manufactured for the purpose for which they are being used, being sold by agents who have been trying their trade in the mining communities of the county. The copper boiler is being largely used for still purposes.

In addition to the collection of stills the stock of liquor is being added to every day. Some of the home-made stuff that is being manufactured is regular fire water. There is a greater variety of liquors now in the hands of the district attorney than can be named.

There remains but one week until the grand jury will be convened, when much of the evidence will be presented. With the disposition of these liquor cases at the November term of court there is going to be a wholesale disposal of stills and liquors by the district attorney.

BRINGS UNUSUAL SUIT AGAINST AUTO OWNER

Martin Zarnoski, next friend and father of Leon Zarnoski and Mary Zarnoski in his own right, has filed a suit against Hyman J. Appelbaum of Donora, for damages for personal injuries received by the son of the plaintiff, when he fell from an automobile being driven by the defendant. The accident occurred on October 15, 1920. The defendant, it appears, had stopped the car at a point along the street, and the boy got on the running board. The boy in getting off fell and struck his head against the curb suffering a fractured skull and other injuries. It is averred that the defendant was negligent in not compelling the boy to get off the car before it was started, or stopping and letting the boy off after it had been started.

"WORLD SERIES" IN FAYETTE COUNTY

They are still playing baseball in Fayette county, the two towns of Republic and Masontown fighting for the premier honors in that county. The second game of a series of three was played on Sunday afternoon at Republic, which resulted in a tie score in seven innings, when the umpire called the game on account of darkness. The first game was won by Masontown with Bill Doak of the St. Louis Nationals pitching the score being 2 to 1. A large crowd attended the game on Sunday, and if the other contests are played as is expected the attendance will be the record breaking variety.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Post and son Nicholas Jr., have returned home from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Carter, of Keystone, Oklahoma.

ACCIDENT STOPS AIRPLANE FLIGHT

An airplane which has been flying from the Thomas Crawford farm, near Brownsville, during the past week, met with an accident Sunday afternoon.

Lieut. Wood, pilot, was just starting out with a passenger and as they were riding along the ground a spectator got in front of the plane. To avoid hitting the man Lt. Wood swung his plane to the right and in so doing the propeller struck the ground and was broken. The right wheel was also damaged. Another plane which had been flying at Donora during the past week was brought to Brownsville Sunday afternoon to assist Lt. Wood in carrying the many people who were locked for a ride, but it was also put out of commission by a slight accident. About ten passengers had been taken up before the accident happened.

A CHARLEROI INTERVIEW

Mrs. Velleety Tells Her Experience
The following brief account of an interview with a Charleroi woman five years ago, and its sequel will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

Mrs. Louis Velleety 27, Prospect Ave., Charleroi, Pa., was troubled for years with a swelling around my ankles and feet and found it hard to get around. I had heard of a cure to do my ankles work. Mornings I would wake up very sore and find great difficulty in bending or moving in any way. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, purchased at a local drug store. After taking two boxes of the medicine I was relieved. I said to my husband, occasionally and they keep me feeling fine." (Statement given Jan. 30, 1911.)

On December 1, 1918, Mrs. Velleety said: "I haven't had to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills lately and I tell everyone I hear complaining of their kidneys to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I feel better than ever." (Statement given Jan. 30, 1911.)

A football game of much interest will be played at Monessen next Saturday afternoon, when the Donora and Monessen High school teams appear in their annual clash. From advance dope it would appear that Monessen has the stronger team, but dope has been upset on many occasions.

The extent of the ouija board craze must have been exaggerated, for in a recent series of spelling bees at a popular summer resort in North Carolina 50 per cent of the contestants failed to spell "ouija" correctly.

TRAINED NURSE ADVISES PEOPLE.

"I was a great sufferer of stomach and liver trouble and cannot say enough in praise of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It has done so much for me and I am recommending it to other sufferers. GAME AGENTS ARE AFTER VIOLATORS

To assist in making a closer check-up on aliens who have been doing pro-season hunting in Fayette county, two agents from the State Game, Fish and Forestry Commission at Harrisburg are in Uniontown at present and will in all probability remain there until the latter part of the week.

Wholesale prosecutions, charging a variety of offenses, are anticipated. Reports asserting "scores of turkeys have been killed ahead of season" have made their way to officials of the Pennsylvania Wild Life League, and these given over to the state authorities resulting in the presence of representatives in Fayette county.

HAD INFLUENZA

Then Watch That Cold, and avert after effects

Even if you escape the Influenza Epidemic, the system should be guarded against colds this season. If you suppress an attack, you should be doubly careful in view of the weakening effects of this deadly disease. At the first sign of cold, sore throat or coughing, apply Krew-Pina to the throat and chest and massage. Also put a little into the nostrils. The best time for this treatment is bedtime, when you can draw the bed clothes up over the nose, funnel-wise, and inhale the medicinal vapors that reach the inflamed membranes in the air passages of the lungs.

The scientific formula from which Krew-Pina is compounded and the absolute harmlessness of all its ingredients make it invaluable for general family use in quickly relieving or healing ailments such as croup, tonsillitis, bronchial and foot troubles, whooping cough, bruises, stone bruises, burns, scalds, cuts, etc. Keep a jar on hand for emergency purposes. 30c and 60c size, at your druggist's.

SLOAN'S GOES RIGHT TO THE ACHING SPOT

You can just tell by its beauty, stimulating odor, that it is going to do you good

THOUSANDS of men and women, when the least little rheumatic "crick" assails them, have Sloan's Liniment ready to knock it out. Popular over a third of a century ago—far more popular today.

That's because it is so wonderfully helpful in relieving external aches and pains—sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia, overstrained muscles, stiff joints, weather exposure results. A little is all that is necessary, for it soon penetrates without rubbing, to the sore spot. No muss, no stained skin.

DEAR OLD PETE:

Winston-Salem, N. C.
Friday p. m.

Just wound up the one swellest day of my life! Since early this morning, when I got an invitation to visit R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories, I've been in the midst of millions of Camel cigarettes.

Man—the happiest idea you or I ever had as to the size of this Reynolds enterprise, or the number of Camels manufactured daily, is simply piker-stuff! Wipe off the slate and start fresh! Why—Pete, it seemed to me like a couple of those cigarette-making machines could keep half the nation smoking Camels steadily—BUT—honest to goodness, there are hundreds of these machines bawling out Camels at the rate of 27,000 an hour—EACH!

Pete, you wouldn't have to consult a guide book to know you were in the Camel factories! The atmosphere is charged with that wonderful aroma you get when you open up a deck of Camels! And, you know, old elephant—you've had a trunk full!

As the Camels dropped into the containers I figured the delight each one would supply! And, how Camels mellow, mild body would hit the right spot and how Camels refreshing flavor would cheer up some smoker's jaded appetite! And, each Camel free from any unpleasant cigarettey aftertaste or unpleasant cigarettey odor! And—

Pete—I'll have to lay off and light another Camel! Write you some more soon.

Yours joyously,

Shorty.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED TO THE CITIZENS OF THE COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION, BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, AND PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Number One.
A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section eleven of article sixteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

Amend section eleven, article sixteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:

"No corporate body to possess banking and discounting privileges shall be created or organized in pursuance of any law without three months' previous public notice, at the place of the intended location, of the intention to apply for such privileges, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law, nor shall a charter for such privilege be granted for a longer period than twenty years," so that it shall read as follows:

"The General Assembly shall have the power by general law to provide for the incorporation of banks and trust companies and to prescribe the powers thereof."

Number Two.
A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article nine, section eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

That article nine, section eight, be amended to read as follows:

Section 5. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as provided herein, and in section fifteen of this article, shall never exceed seven (7) per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, but the debt of the city of Philadelphia may be increased in such amount that the total city debt of said city shall not exceed ten per centum (10) upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two (2) per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the consent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law. In ascertaining the borrowing capacity of the city of Philadelphia, at any time, there shall be deducted from such debt so much of the debt of said city as shall have been incurred, or is about to be incurred, and the proceeds thereof expended, or about to be expended, upon any public improvement, or in the construction, purchase, or condemnation of any public utility, or part thereof, or facility therefor, if such public improvement or public utility, or part thereof, whether separately or in connection with any other public improvement or public utility, or part thereof, may reasonably be expected to yield revenue in excess of operating expenses sufficient to pay the interest and sinking-fund charges thereon. The method of determining such amount, so to be deducted, may be prescribed by the General Assembly.

In incurring indebtedness for any purpose the city of Philadelphia may issue its obligations maturing not later than fifty (50) years from the date thereof, with provision for a sinking-fund sufficient to retire said obligations at maturity, the payment to such sinking-fund to be in equal graded annual or other periodical installments. Where any indebtedness shall be or shall have been incurred by said city of Philadelphia for the purpose of the construction or improvement of public works or utilities of any character, from which income or revenue is to be derived by said city, or for the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of wharves or docks owned or to be owned by said city, such obligations may be in an amount sufficient to provide for, and may include the amount of, the interest and sinking-fund charges accruing and which may accrue throughout the period of construction, and until the expiration of one year after the completion of the work for which said indebtedness shall have been incurred; and said city shall not be required to levy a tax to pay said interest and sinking-fund charges until the expiration of said period of one year after the completion of said work.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

That section one of article eight, which reads as follows:

"Section 1. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject, however, to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact:

"First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

"Second. He shall have resided in the State one year (or, having previously been a qualified elector or native-born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned; then six months), immediately preceding the election.

"Third. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

"Fourth. If twenty-two years of age and upward, he shall have paid, within two years, a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months, and paid at least one month before the election, he shall be deemed to have complied with this section.

Section 1. Every citizen male or female twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject, however, to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact:

First. He or she shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He or she shall have resided in the State one year (or, having previously been a qualified elector or native-born citizen of the State, he or she shall have removed therefrom and returned; then six months), immediately preceding the election.

Third. He or she shall have resided in the election district where he or she shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

Fourth. If twenty-two years of age and upward, he or she shall have paid, within two years, a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months, and paid at least one month before the election, he or she shall be deemed to have complied with this section.

Fifth. Whenever the words "he," "his," "him," and "himself" occur in any section of article eight of this Constitution, the same shall be construed as if written, respectively, "he or she," "his or her," "him or her," and "himself or herself."

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

It is an exact duplicate of the Official Laboratory Model, which made music-history last Thursday in Charleroi. This instrument has been certified by Madame Le Fontenay herself.

Do you hope to own a phonograph as wonderful as the Official Laboratory Model, which enthralled an audience of Charleroi's music-lovers at High School Auditorium? Do you want your home to enjoy this new art of music RE-CREATED, with which Mr. Edison has amazed and delighted the whole world?

We have a few Official Laboratory Models in our store.

They are exact duplicates of the epoch-making instrument which triumphed in the test. They will sustain the very same test. Madame Le Fontenay in order to assure you of this, has signed Certificates of Authenticity which will be presented to purchasers of these instruments. Only a few of these certified Official Laboratory Models left. You would better come in today.
